Another Midsummer Night's muthafukin Dream
new works by Alfonso Kellenberger

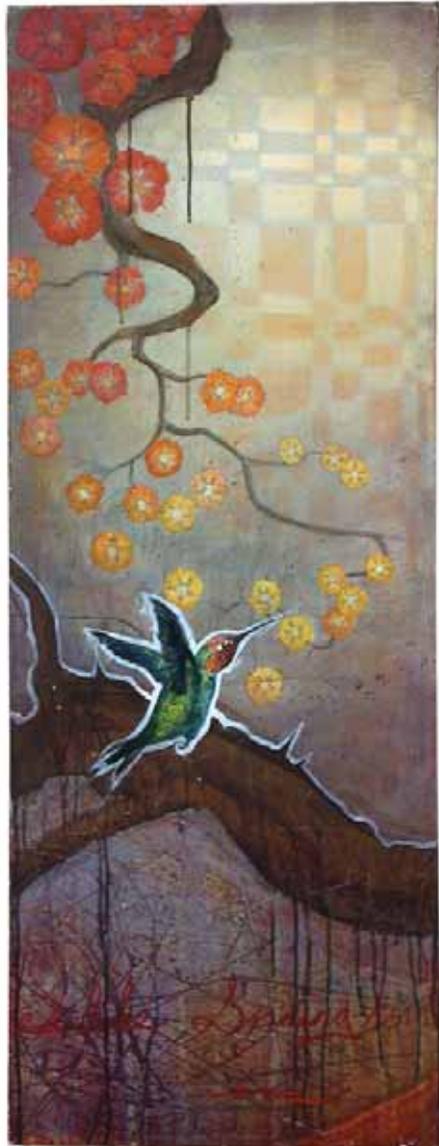

Anno Domini // the second coming of Art & Design, San Jose, California

"There's a garden I visit nightly. It's vast. I'm a lucid dreamer of the astral trailer park variety. These characters are part of the pantheon of my personal mythology, representations of myself, my friends, my obsessions, desires, fears...played out in urban fairy tale action adventures."

~ Alfonso Kellenberger, 2004
